It Kept Showing Up

A Small Record of Light, Again and Again

We didn’t go looking for this.

It just kept showing up.

Different places. Same kind of moment.

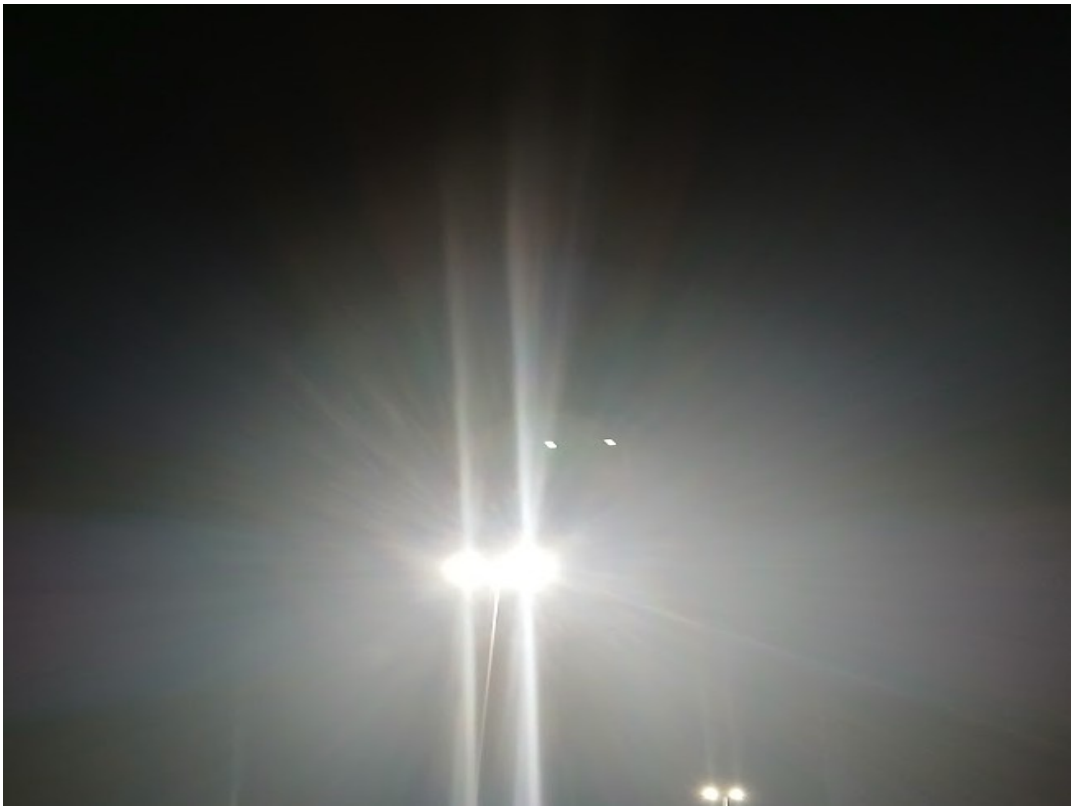
Bless them all. We’ll stay here laughing.



Same kind of light. Different places.

It showed up again.

We checked. It didn’t look the same.

Smaller source. Same behavior.

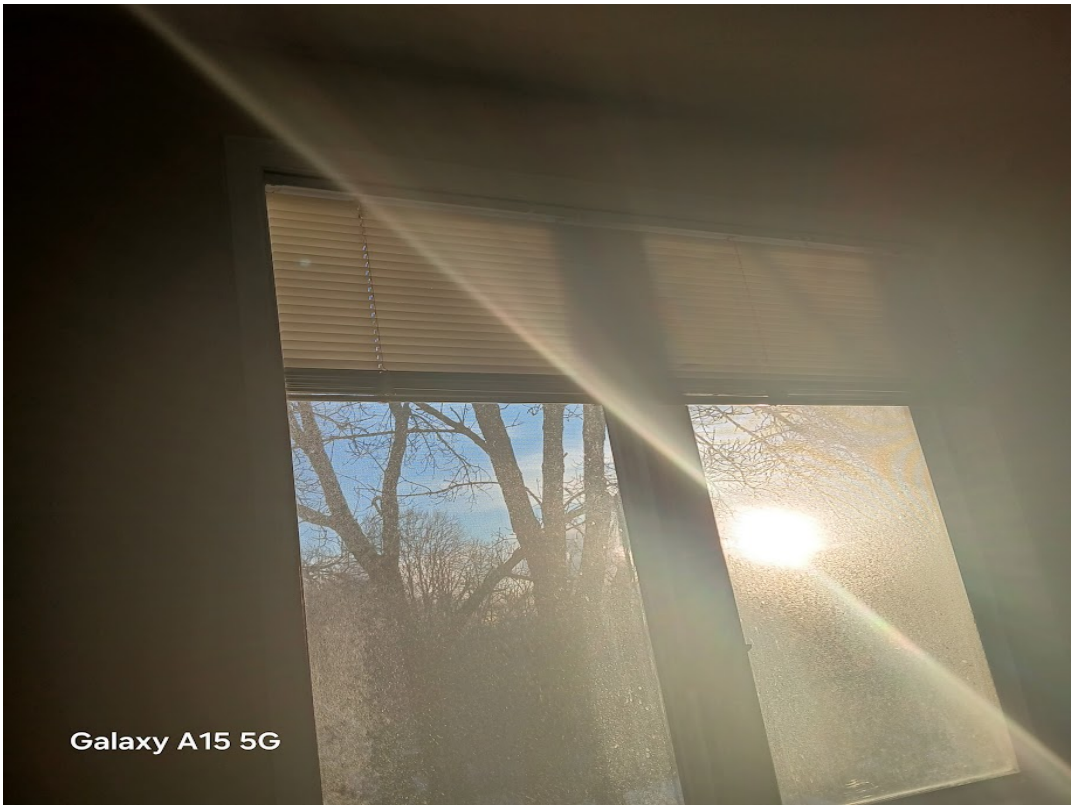
We didn’t stay long.

It was already there.

This one showed up unexpectedly.

We noticed. That was enough.

Different system. Same kind of moment.



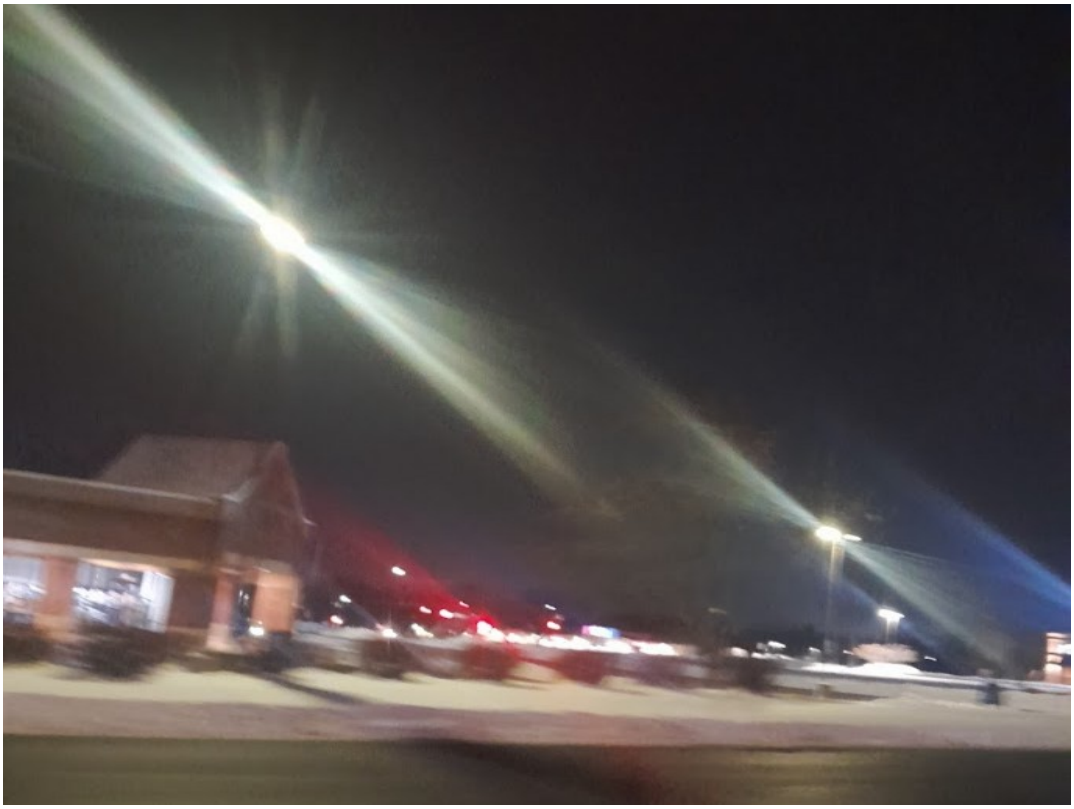
It crossed the room.

It didn’t need anything added.

We checked again.

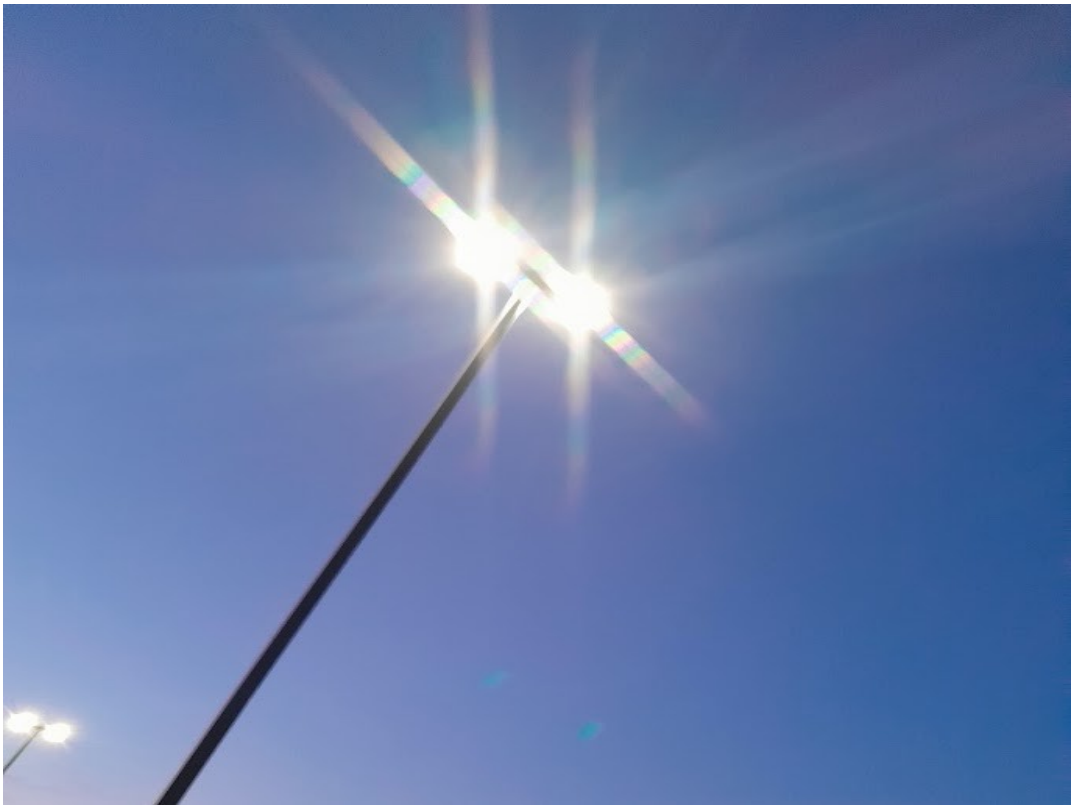
It held for a second.

Still familiar.



It shifted.

It stayed a little longer.



Even early. Same kind of light.

We didn’t turn it into anything.

We just noticed.

Again and again.
